Who's the CULPRIT?"

Date: 17th March 2006.

Location: Taramay Beach Res.

Event: St Patrick's Day Prizes.

Amongst the several items generously given by members to boost the prize list at this event, a bottle of Seagrams "100 Pipers" whisky was anonymously received. Due to the fact that this product didn't have any "Irish cachet" it was not presented on the day, but was subsequently won by Neville Cousins at Granada. SURPRISE! SURPRISE!, when Neville sat back to enjoy his prize, the content of the bottle turned out to be "COLD TEA!" It's good to know that a sense of humour exists within the G.I.N.S. but this particular way of demonstrating it is grossly perverted.

Bill McCracken.

Ye Olde Golf Clubs (part 2)

"BRASSIE" - Definition:

The historical name for the club that was the closest equivalent to today's 2-woods. A modern 2-wood is not a brassie, it was very different from the modern 2-wood. But in loft, appearance & use, the brassie is the antique club most related. Brassie is most commonly applied to pre-20th Century times.

"Baffie" - Definition: The baffie is the wooden-shafted historical (pre-20th Century) golf club, the loft and use match best with today's modern 4-wood.

"Cleek" - Definition: Pre-20th Century Iron, with a narrow face and little loft. Equivalent to today's 1-irons. Also there were wooden cleek's, little loft but with a wooden head, also putting cleek's for yes putting. (Source British Museum)

A blonde pushes her BMW into a petrol station. She tells the mechanic it will not start! After he works on it for a few moments, it is idling smoothly. She asks "what was the problem?" He replies, "Just crap in the carburettor" She asks, "How often do I have to do that?"

GOLFING SLANG - We know the "Sister in Law" and "Sally Gunnell" ones, here are a few more:-

An Adolf Hitler - taking two shots in the bunker.
An Arther Scargill - a great strike, but a poor result.
A Kate Winslett - a bit fat, but otherwise perfect.
A Rodney King - over clubbed.
An O.J. Simpson - somehow got away with it!
A Condom - safe but didn't feel too good.
A Paula Radcliffe - still a good runner.
A Kate Moss - a bit thin.
A Gerry Adams - when you hit a "provisional" (J.E.)

Captain's Letter!

"The CAPTAIN BREAKS A RULE"

A couple of weeks ago I was approaching the 12th at Baviera and my wife Anne, who was playing with the group in front came over with a query Saying that her ball was in the bunker that the Green keepers were working in, "what should I have done?" I looked at the bunker (not knowing at the time that my ball and a playing partners ball were also in the bunker. The bunker was a mess, there were 2 green keepers working in it, plus a wheelbarrow, tools etc. I said to Anne you should have taken a free drop.

Under rule 25:- "Ground under repair" is any portion of the course so marked by the committee or so declared by it's authorised representative. It includes material piled for removal & a hole made by a green keeper, even if so marked." NOT SO!!

The rule goes on to state, that if the ball is in a HAZARD (A) without penalty, IN THE HAZARD the player may drop as near as possible to where the ball lay, not nearer the hole, on ground which affords the maximum available relief from the condition. Or under PENALTY of one stroke, drop the ball outside the hazard. I am not sure whether I could have got away with it under the AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVE clause or not! Your comments please - Your Captain Jim Emery.

She was in the kitchen doing the boiled eggs for breakfast. He walks in. She says, "You've got to make love to me this very moment." He thinks, "This is my lucky day" And gives it all on the kitchen table. He says afterwards, "What was that all about?" She says, "The egg timer's broken." Ed

10 Reasons why golf is better than SEX ?

A below par round is considered good. It's fine to golf with a stranger. You can stop in the middle and have a hamburger. It's much easier to find the sweet spot! Your golf partner won't ask questions about your golfing partners. As a senior you can still make money. Three times a day is possible. No such thing as a golf transmitted disease. If your equipment gets old and rusty, you can repair it.
