Welcome to this Month's Newsletter. Firstly, I hope most of the 'glitches' with receiving your copy have been resolved. Also, I was hoping to launch the 'New Revised'

Newsletter this month but due to commitments elsewhere and the fact there's no Newsletter in July and August, it's been decided to leave the launch until September. Do check the Website though for any updates.

Well done to all for last months 'Who Said' - it was, Senior sports Columnist for the News (USA) - Jerry Sullivan.

Finally, apologies to George Reid for missing you off the results for last month....sorry George!! Ed.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

Golf is the hardest sport... One day you are on cloud nine, and the next day you couldn't scratch a whale's belly. - Sam Sneed

JOKE OF THE MONTH

The Justice of the Peace in a small town was about to tee off with two other friends one day when the club pro volunteered to join them. It seemed like the perfect opportunity for a free lesson. But instead of being helpful the pro was openly critical of the JP's game. At every bumbled shot, the pro made a joke about the justice. But the criticism didn't even stop at the end of the round.

The pro continued to embarrass the JP in the clubhouse among his friends. Finally the pro got up to leave and said, "Judge, let's do it again sometime. If you can't find anybody else to make a foursome, I'll be glad to play with you again."

"Well that would be fine," the Justice of the Peace said. "How about next Saturday? I don't think any of my friends can join us, so why don't you just have your parents join us, and after our round I can marry them!!."
